Leisure & Culture Dundee would like to inform you about some of the services that we offer Council Departments, Leisureactive partners and external organisations in relation to low cost Health and Safety First Aid training.

We offer flexible, friendly and easy to follow First Aid training, helping Council Departments and managers fulfil their statutory duty of care as laid down by the Health & Safety Executive.

The Olympia Centre has been registered with the Health & Safety Executive as an approved training centre and provider of First Aid training in the work place for many years. Now that the H.S.E. have moved away from First Aid approvals Leisure & Culture Dundee are now registered with Qualsafe Awards which are an Ofqual recognised Awarding Organisation. We can offer departments & businesses high quality nationally recognised First Aid qualifications at a low cost price.

Qualsafe Awards is the UK's Largest Awarding Organisation for First Aid.

Overall rating of Qualsafe award centre for 2018 - 9.5/10.

Check out our prices and compare them to other training providers where you could be paying from £120 per candidate for a Level 3 Emergency First Aid at Work course and £280 per candidate for a Level 3 First Aid at Work course.

We can offer First Aid training at Olympia or our trainers can travel and deliver courses at a location & time of your choice.

We can design first aid sessions specifically for your group & cover a wide-range of topics including First Aid for adult, child & baby casualties.

Olympia is a Qualsafe Awards approved First Aid trainer provider. Our trainers are qualified & experienced in delivering First Aid training & use a wide range of teaching methods to ensure that all candidates gain the confidence to participate fully during training sessions.
